What is an EIN Number?

The Employer Identification Number (EIN), also known as the Federal Employer Identification Number (FEIN) or the Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN), is a unique nine-digit number assigned by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) (format: XX-XXXXXXX) to business entities operating in the United States for the purposes of identification and employment tax reporting.

Employer Identification Number (EIN): The Employer Identification Number (EIN), also known as the Federal Employer Identification Number (FEIN) or the Federal Tax Identification Number (FTIN), is a unique nine-digit number assigned by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) (format: XX-XXXXXXX) to business entities operating in the United States for the purposes of identification and employment tax reporting. Other commonly used terms for EIN are Taxpayer Id, IRS Number, Tax Id, Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN) etc.

A business needs an EIN in order to pay employees and to file business tax returns. To be considered a Partnership, LLC, Corporation, S Corporation, Non-profit, etc. a business must obtain an EIN. Also, financial institutions such as banks, credit unions, and brokerage houses will not open an account for a corporation without an EIN. Since all corporations - including ones with no income - must file at least a federal income tax return, a corporation operating or incorporated in the United States generally must obtain an EIN anyway either before or after being issued its charter.

What is eintaxid.com?: Our website eintaxid.com is a free resource to find the ein number for various business entities. We have a database of over 7.3M entities which can be searched to find the ein number of business entities. We harvest our data from various publically available data sources such as edgar database (SEC), form 5500 dataset (IRS), form 990 datasets (tax-exempt organizations) etc.
